In the year 1558, a young Prince was born to King Akbar, ruler of the Mogul Empire and a direct descendant of the great Jenghis Khan.....
he was called Jahangir.

Legend tells that although married to the strong-minded Noor Jahan, he became involved in a star-crossed romance with a dancing girl called Anarkali.

Such was the Kings displeasure that he had her sentenced to death, but her mother, who had been a midwife at the birth of Jahangir, pleaded successfully for her life. Sentenced was altered to exile.

Jahangir's rule had a great impact on the destiny of his country, he signed a treaty with England in 1605 and this, in turn, led to the dominance of the East India Company throughout India.

Jahangir was succeeded in 1627 by his son Shah Jahan, he created the most romantic symbol of India to the world, in the memory of his loving wife, Mumtaz... The Taj Mahal.
